OUR AIM

Our aim is to make the Holiday Theatre Activity a place of training and discovery. During the two weeks of activities, our team will focus on all the elements involved in presenting a major theatrical production. This will culminate in two performances of Alice in Wonderland JR at the Empire Theatre on Saturday 10th July 2010

The process rather than the final product is the emphasis of this activity. Children will be able to enjoy a number of workshops and develop their skills in acting, music and dance. These activities will help to develop the city's youth through an arts environment that is fun, creative and caring. This is an excellent opportunity to be involved in an exciting week of training, rehearsing and performing.

Training and direction will be carried out by a fine production team with a wealth of experience in the areas of teaching, performance and production, supported by the Production Committee and a large number of volunteers.

Cast members are invited to Youth Choir rehearsals each Tuesday from 5:30 - 7:00pm to prepare some of the music for Alice in Wonderland JR

Every child must be fully committed to all the rehearsals and performances. Parents will be asked to provide packed lunches, snacks and drinks during rehearsals and the performance day. There may also be requirements for a small contribution towards the children's costumes (this should be minimal)

If you have any questions or enquiries, or you are over 18 and interested in participating as a production volunteer, please register your interest by contacting:
